

Background

- Healthcare
- Corporate Finance

David Canavan - Managing Director, BBK New York

David is a leading professional in healthcare and corporate finance with nearly 30 years of expertise. His tenured background demonstrates compelling results that expand the resources and capabilities of BBK.

Professional Experience

As Senior Vice President and Head of the Senior Housing Finance Group for HSH Nordbank AG, David established a business platform focused on senior housing organizations. Products provided include acquisition and recapitalization term loans, construction loans, letters of credit to support tax-exempt bonds, mezzanine / high yield debt, development loans and equity. During his four years as Head of Senior Housing, David led the team to become one of the top providers of capital to this industry. He successfully closed $3.75 billion of financings to this sector.

As Managing Director, Senior Housing Finance Group for Banc of America Securities David led a specialty investment banking team that focused on providing financial products and related services to organizations engaged in the senior housing sector. He also syndicated and arranged credit facilities through Bank of America for general market municipal entities and not-for-profit healthcare institutions.

David was responsible for the healthcare banking business at Paribas. As Managing Director and National Head of the Healthcare Finance Group, he managed innovative transactions and developed strong relationships with the leading financial advisory firms, investment banks, bond counsels and equity sponsors. Completed transactions included a variety of sectors, such as acute care hospitals, drug distribution companies, medical device companies, dialysis providers, clinical laboratories, home healthcare providers, skilled nursing facilities, assisted living providers and continuing care retirement communities. David held several other positions during his time with Paribas, including Director, Specialized Finance Group and New York Corporate Banking Group.

David has also held senior positions with The Yasuda Trust & Banking Company, LTD, The Irving Trust Company, New York and Citibank, N.A.

Education

- MBA, New York University
- BA, College of the Holy Cross