

Richard K. Hollowell - Managing Director / National Real Estate Practice Lead

Richard heads BBK's Los Angeles office and is the firm's National Real Estate Practice Lead. For more than 35 years he has specialized in the evaluation, management and disposition of real estate-related assets. He is nationally recognized for advisory work provided to FDIC-insured banks, thrifts, pension funds, insurance companies, and federal agencies – including the FSLIC, RTC and FDIC. This success has led to Richard delivering real estate-related speeches and seminars throughout the world.

Background

- Real Estate

Recent Speaking Engagement

- 2010 ICSC RECon Convention, "Bankruptcy Avoidance: CMBS and Bank Loan Restructurings for Survival"

Recent Published Article

- Western Independent Bankers Magazine, "Prudent CRE Loan Workouts: A Best Practices Approach"

Professional Experience

Among his private sector clients, Richard has worked with land developers, homebuilders, commercial property developers and investors, and closely-held portfolio property owners. His breadth of experience includes shopping centers, office buildings, industrial facilities, multifamily apartments, planned unit developments, hotels, condominiums, and historic redevelopments.

Among his career affiliations, Richard was National President of Real Estate Recovery, Inc., one of the largest private service providers to the RTC; he also served as a Managing Director for Alvarez & Marsal Real Estate Advisory Services; as well as the J.E. Robert Companies, G.E. Capital, National City Bank and Jacobs Visconsi & Jacobs Company.

Education

- Bachelor of Arts in Real Estate, Florida International University

Affiliations and Memberships

- Western Independent Bankers Association
- American Bankers Association
- Practising Law Institute, Volunteer Lecturer